Your Global Extension

Reaching every corner of the world instantly

Global Virtual
PBX product

Overview

With China Telecom's Global PBX service, you can reach your colleagues in world-wide branch offices by simply pressing an extension number. No matter where your offices are, or which fixed-network telecom operator you are using, you can enjoy the unparalleled convenience in global communication and maximize your productivity to wherever your business takes you.

Key Features

Extension Calling

Reach your colleagues worldwide as if they are in the same office, by simply dialing an access number, followed by a 4-digit extension number.

- Step 1: Dial the company's access number in China (4008418888).
- Step 2: Follow the voice instructions and enter Wong's extension number 2001.
- Step 3: The call is connected to Wong's direct line.

Call Forwarding

Never miss a call from your extensions. Forward incoming calls to the three phone numbers you assigned one by one.

- Bind ext. 3001 with 2 actual numbers using self-service.
Number 1: office number
Number 2: mobile number
- Step 1: Dial the company's access number in China (4008418888).
- Step 2: Enter Jessie's extension number 3001. Office number is unanswered as she is on business trip in Germany.
- Step 3: The call is forwarded to Jessie's mobile number.

International Roaming

Get a local access number and save roaming and IDD cost when you are in business trips.

- Step 1: Dial the company's access number in the USA (7035552222).
- Step 2: Following the voice instruction, Mei enters the phone number (+8613301008888).

Conference Call

Set up a conference bridge to enable meetings among colleagues from different countries without subscribing to a separate conference system.

Your Exclusive Values

Save Cost

- ✓ No CAPEX investment is required, that means no initial hardware setup cost and subsequent maintenance cost.
